

TENTATIVE RULINGS

CHILD SUPPORT CALENDAR

Date: 3/27/13

Wednesday

Dept.: 4

(Posted 3/26/13)

Tentative Rulings are proposed as orders to be issued at the hearing and are posted in advance for the convenience of the parties and their counsel. Each matter on calendar will be called and parties are expected to attend. For those matters where the parties are not ordered to appear and either the parties agree or no objection is made at the hearing, the Court routinely adopts the tentative ruling as the ruling in the matter.

For privacy purposes, on the publicly posted version of this document, the parties' last names have been replaced by keeping only the first letter followed by three x's (example, John Doe = John Dxxx).

After considering the pleadings, including an exemplified copy of the North Carolina, County of Hoke, case file (09CVD391), and argument of the parties, it appears North Carolina has jurisdiction to make child custody orders; however, it does not appear North Carolina had personal jurisdiction over the defendant for the purpose of establishing a monetary support order. The objection to registration is sustained.
